

THOMAS W. AYLESWORTH · ATTORNEY

◇ PRACTICE

Thomas W. Aylesworth's practice emphasizes litigation, with particular expertise in land use disputes involving real estate contracts, commercial and residential construction, permitting appeals, and leases. He has additional and substantial experience in a wide range of other litigation matters, including disputes involving business contracts, employment, partnerships, employment, civil rights, domestic relations, product warranties, tax abatements, insurance claims, and estate probate. He is admitted to practice in the state and federal courts of Massachusetts. Mr. Aylesworth is designated with Martindale-Hubbell's rating of AV.

◇ EDUCATION

Boston College Law School - 1995
University of Wisconsin - 1985

◇ EXPERIENCE

Freeman Law Group LLC – Counsel, September 2009 to Present
Nutter McClennen & Fish, LLP – Partner/Associate, 1999 to September 2009
Wiggin & Nourie, P.A. – Associate, 1995 to 1999

◇ ADMISSIONS

Mr. Aylesworth is admitted to practice law in the state and federal district courts of Massachusetts.

◇ MEMBERSHIPS

Mr. Aylesworth is a member in good standing with the Massachusetts Bar Association.

◇ PUBLICATIONS AND SEMINARS

Author, "Clearing the Mix-Up Over a Mixed Standard of Review - Britton v. Zoning Board of Appeals of Gloucester," Boston Bar Journal, May/June 2005.

Seminar Panel Speaker, "Getting Your Evidence and Expert Testimony Admitted into Court in Massachusetts," 2005.

Seminar Panel Speaker, "Effective Legal Writing," 2000.

Seminar Panel Speaker, "Effective Discovery Strategies," 1999.